

Counseling Psychology & Clinical Psychology Externship Program 2022-2023

Application Deadline: Friday, February 18, 2022

Start Date: Wednesday, September 7, 2022

Re-New Psychological Services, LLC is excited to offer up to 4 doctoral externship positions for the 2022-2023 academic year. We are a group private practice that provides individual and group therapy to adult individuals in DC, Maryland, and Virginia. This externship is appropriate for third or fourth year doctoral students in APA-approved clinical or counseling psychology programs. Students with a strong interest in providing psychotherapy are invited to apply.

The Externship experience will include:

- 8-10 individual adult clients, including initial assessment interviews
- Externs have the option to co-lead a group
- 1.5 hour of group supervision (including case presentations)
- 1 hour of scheduled individual supervision, with additional supervision provided as needed
- 1.5 hours of professional seminar (e.g., topics in psychology and/or professional development)
- A stipend of $1500

All therapy, supervision and seminars will be remote via teleconference as our practice has not returned to in-person services. All supervision will be provided by licensed psychologists.

To apply, please submit:

- An updated CV
- A letter of interest
- Two letters of recommendation

Please send all application materials to info@renewpsych.com.
